on

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

5:30 pm Registration • 6:00 – 7:30 pm Panel Discussion

$20.00 Club Members • $30.00 Non-Members

Includes one drink and light hors d'oeuvres

Moderator: Former Ohio Senator Grace Drake, Director, of the Ohio Center for the Advancement of Women in Public Service at the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs, at Cleveland State University

The following panel of women who are in or have been in an elected or appointed government position will discuss their experiences in politics as either a trailblazer or an emerging leader. The trials and tribulations of being a woman in politics will be exposed as well as the highlights and successes of such an exciting career. We will all learn by/through participation what role we can play in getting into political leader positions ourselves and/or how to support those with such aspirations.

The Confirmed Panelists are as follows:

- Dr. Betty K. Pinkney, District Director, Office of Congresswoman Stephanie Tubbs Jones, 11th Congressional District of Ohio, Cleveland District Office
- Valarie J. McCall, Chief Government Affairs Officer, Office of Mayor Frank G. Jackson, City of Cleveland
 - Ohio State Senator Shirley Smith
 - Lillian J. Greene, Cuyahoga County Recorder
 - Mayor Deborah Sutherland, City of Bay Village
 - Former Cleveland Mayor Jane Campbell
- Former Municipal Court Judge Jazmin G. Torres-Lugo, Esquire

Sponsored by The Club at Key Center, The Professional Women's Committee, The Women of Color Foundation, and The Levin College at Cleveland State University.
